

Welcome to the wonderful world of organized electronic opposition!

I've lived through decades of the restrictions that, despite claims to the contrary, actually HAVE restricted the public's access to diversity.

Congratulations to those of you who were both perceptive enough to recognize the opposition falsely portrayed as "grass root" and courageous enough to vote in favor of easing ownership rules.